

Matteo Colaninno

(Born in Mantua on 16 October 1970)

Piaggio Group Executive Chairman

Matteo Colaninno has been Chairman of the Board of Directors of Piaggio & C. S.p.A. since 1 September 2023.

He holds a degree in Business & Economics and has been a director of Piaggio & C. S.p.A. since 2003; he was Deputy Chairman from 2004 to August 2023.

He is a shareholder and Executive Chairman of Omniaholding; Executive Chairman of Omniainvest.

He is Executive Chairman of Immsi S.p.A..

He is a member of the management committee of Confindustria.

From 2008 to 2022, he was a member of the Chamber of Deputies, in three legislatures.

He was first elected to the Chamber of Deputies in 2008, as head of the electoral list in Milan. He was re-elected in 2013 and 2018.

He served as minister for economic development in the shadow government of the PD (Partito Democratico, Democratic Party), and as a director and head of economic policy in the national secretariat of the PD.

From 2019 to 2022 he was head of the Italia Viva group on the Chamber of Deputies' European Union Policies Commission.

From 2005 to 2008 he was national chairman of Confindustria young entrepreneurs.

From 2001 to 20 February 2008, he was deputy chairman of Banca Popolare di Mantova.

Matteo Colaninno began his career at the Sogefi group.

Since 1998 he has developed his professional experience working in Omniaholding and following his father, Roberto, founder of the holding that controls Piaggio and the Immsi industrial group.

On 5 October 2024, he was received by Pope Francis who appointed him a Papal Gentleman.