PIAGGIO GROUP: INDIA, PRODUCTION FACILITY RESUMES OPERATIONS

ALL GROUP PRODUCTION CENTRES AROUND THE WORLD ARE OPERATIONAL

Milan, 11 May 2020 - All the production facilities of the Piaggio Group (PIA.MI) around the world have resumed operations after the shutdown due to the Covid-19 virus. Production also started up again this morning at the Indian factory in Baramati.

In India the lockdown among dealers ended last week, with the re-opening of around 190 commercial vehicle and two-wheeler dealers, and the subsequent resumption of commercial activities.

The Piaggio Group's Italian factories went back to work on 4 May, whereas the Vietnamese facility experienced slowdowns in operations due to suppliers but always continued production.
