Highlights (1/3)
First nine months results

Mixed market trend across all key reference markets, India LCV bottoming out

- Western Countries demand edged slightly down:
  - European 2 Wheeler demand slightly off PY against challenging comparison base;
    - Scooter kept the muted trend of the first half of the year ending down ~1%, whilst the gap between 50cc and over 50cc widened throughout the period, with the former ending up by ~8% and the latter down by ~7%;
    - Italy, Benelux and France, all posting demand on the rise, still unable to fully counterbalance lackluster demand of other countries
  - Bikes ended flat on the back of a promising upswing in Q3
  - North America declined for the sixth straight quarter ending down by ~8% vs. prior year in the scooter segment

- Asia Pacific upward demand trends strengthened throughout the period:
  - Vietnam positive demand trend accelerated, mainly on the back of Scooters posting double-digit growth
  - Indonesia, for several years the laggard in the region, ended up in line with PY after strong demand rebound in Q3, while mid-single digit growth continued across most of other countries

- India demand trend improved across all segments as the year progressed:
  - 3 Wheelers still down by ~15% YTD, but the trend reverted in Q3 (~ +4% Y/Y) signaling that the demonetization negative effects had been finally cleared
  - 2 Wheelers favorable momentum continued, with Scooters once more driving the growth ending up by ~12%
Highlights (2/3)

First nine months results

Western Countries: good performance in a flattish market scenario
- Leadership in European 2 wheelers confirmed with market share in line with PY whilst keeping 10 p.p. lead over the closest competitor in Scooters
- European 2 Wheelers positive trend continued, mainly driven by Italy, the Netherlands, Germany and Austria
- North America good momentum softened in Q3, as prolonged market weakness started taking its toll
- Vespa kept been the bright spot among scooters with volumes and revenues up double-digits in Europe
- 50cc scooters kept on outgrowing the over 50cc segment, with volumes and revenues up double-digits
- Bikes confirmed strong momentum both in Europe and USA, outstripping market trends, mainly on the back of Aprilia double-digit growth
- Average prices in line with PY, despite dilutive product mix effect

Asia Pacific: performance still affected by Vietnamese weakness
- Vietnam still a drag, behind tough comparison base in Q3 and fiercely competitive environment
- Thailand and China kept on being the main engine of growth in Asia ex Vietnam, with revenues surging respectively more than 40% and more than 70%
- Vespa continued posting healthy growth outside Vietnam
- Average regional prices slightly up excluding FX negative effect

India: LCV sequentially improving while strong momentum in 2 Wheelers strengthened
- 3 Wheel market share slightly above PY, despite unfavorable product mix in the Pax segment
- 3/4 Wheel performance on the mend, with revenue slide halted in Q3 behind positive domestic demand trend and growth in exports
- 2 Wheels strong growth accelerated in Q3, with sales topping 9,100 units in September hitting a record high; Vespa has been the bright spot with volumes and revenues surging ~70% in Q3 and ~ 30% YTD
- Average prices slightly below PY, due to Aprilia SR dilutive effect
Highlights (3/3)
First nine months results

First Nine Months EBITDA margin @ 15.0%, the best performance to date
Cash Flow generation of ~60€m, the best performance to date

Healthy performance, despite unsupportive demand in key reference markets, with all key financial metrics on the rise

- Net Sales up by ~26€m (+2.5%; +2.0% at constant FX)
- EBITDA up by ~18€m (+12.4%; +11.3% at constant FX), with ratio on net sales at 15.0%
- Net Profit up by ~6€m (+31.2%)
  - Gross Margin up by ~17€m, with significant uplift of the ratio on Net Sales (30.9% vs. 30.0%) stemming from rigorous price discipline, enhanced efficiency on product costs and increase of plant capacity utilization
  - Cash Opex below PY, further proving the ability to rein in SG&A despite higher marketing spending
  - Total OpEx up by ~9€m, reflecting higher D&A due to prior years increased level of CapEx
- Capital Expenditures at ~56€m, ~10 €m below prior year level, but consistent with FY target in the range 90-100 €m
- Strongest Cash Flow generation to date drove Net Debt at 431€m, ~39€m below September 2016 and ~60€m below December 2016
Growth, driven by the acceleration of the positive trend of 2 Wheelers in India and the ongoing healthy performance of 2 Wheeler in Western Countries.
